My attention has been drawn to a news article about my time in Serbia with FK Vozdovac. In the article, it is alleged that I accused the club of racism and poor treatment. This could not be further from the truth. I made a reference to poor treatment and racial difficulties faced by other players during their travels but stated how different my experience with Vozdovac was.

I confirmed the extent to which the club went to secure my visa and working permit to be able to play in Serbia. Even for something as basic as a haircut, it was the team manager who organized this for me regularly. My biggest challenge was the difference in the intensity of the game in Serbia and never how I was treated.

Professionally I wasn't able to make it there as I had hoped but I can only say good things about the club, and its staff and be grateful for the opportunity they gave me.

This is purely a misrepresentation of my experience and an inaccurate reflection of the interview. I apologize to FK Vozdovac wholeheartedly for this wrongful perception that this article has caused.

I will entreat all to completely disregard this information and treat it with the disdain that it deserves. I wish FK Vozdovac all the best this season as they fight to return to the Serbia Premier League.

Yours Faithfully,

Isaac Kwabena Arthur
